BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

$1,800 PER MONTH

Large eastern corporation has an open ing for a live man with sales and ex-ecutive ability to fill position as man ager for a chain of counties. We are marketing an automobile accessory which has a world wide demand, an article that has been tried out and en-dorsed by the largest companies in the country, one that has absolutely no competition. For an aggressive man who is desirous of establishing a permament and legitimate business of their own and who can invest at least $3,000 (for initial order of merchan dise, which should not last but fifteen days) for a competent man $1,800 per month is easy money, $1,000 cash can handle this proposition. we been in this hole?" Captain Handerson's face lighted with its customary smile as he halted the heavy coat sleeve from his left "Great Scott, Major!" he exclaimed, "it's 3 o'clock. We must have been knocked out for fair, for it was, only when we sat down in your room at the Raleigh to smoke. We'd better rest a bit. I have an idea that when daylight comes we'll see a gleam of light through some exit which we might easily overlook at this hour." Easing themselves to postures as omfortable as possible the tired men vere soon on the way to slumberland.

Suddenly Barry's senses quickened. What was that? A cound of bare feet shuffling and padding came faintly from the left. As it drew nearer he recognized the unmistakable footsteps of some large creature. On it came, nearer and nearer, pausing now and again as if in caution. Barry stiffened as the creature approached. and when its breathing came close enough to indicate its location be suddenly flashed his light full into the face of an old colored man.

Just as we thought, Mrs. Louelin Littlepage, absolutely refused to permit the terrible Wu Tsang to pass entirely out of the picture. This time we get an inkling, that after all, Capt. Barry Henderson is some hero, when it comes to rescuing a Chinaman, who is all but ready to receive chants and flowers. It looks as though Archie
